Scripture to Pray

Hebrews 12:11-14

"For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. Therefore lift your drooping hands and strengthen your weak knees, and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be put out of joint but rather be healed. Strive for peace with everyone, and for the holiness without which no one will see the Lord."

From the Resources

“Without hesitation, we should all admit our need for discipline, for shaping. None of us are perfect, finished projects. We may need to be inspired, nurtured, or healed; we may need to be corrected, challenged, or even broken. Whatever the particular method of cure, let’s at least admit the need for discipline. Let’s not pretend or presume that we are just as we should be, as if God had finished his work with us.
